QA and Software Tester

Description

As a software tester, you are involved in the quality assurance stage of software development and deployment. You'll conduct automated and manual tests to ensure the software created by developers is fit for purpose. Software testing involves the analysis of software, and systems, to avert risk and prevent software issues.

Your role is integral to the creation of software systems and technology products including vehicles, electronic goods, defense, and healthcare.

Ultimately software testers are employed to find bugs and issues within a product before it gets deployed to everyday users. You might work on bespoke, individual projects or multinational projects spanning the globe and be costing billions of pounds. You will need to be, or become, familiar with programming and be using coding languages. Assessing code is one part of the role of a software tester.

Responsibilities

- Gather and evaluate user requirements in collaboration with product managers and engineers
- Illustrate design ideas using storyboards, process flows and sitemaps
- Design graphic user interface elements, like menus, tabs and widgets
- Build page navigation buttons and search fields
- Develop UI mockups and prototypes that clearly illustrate how sites function and look like
- Create original graphics designs (e.g. images, sketches, and tables)
- Prepare and present rough drafts to internal teams and key stakeholders
- Identify and troubleshoot UX problems (e.g. responsiveness)
- Conduct layout adjustments based on user feedback
- Adhere to style standards on fonts, colors, and images

Hiring organization
BrandCrock GmbH e-Commerce web development Agency

Industry
QA

Job Location
131 Lakeview Street East Tambaram, 600059, Chennai India

Working Hours
10:00 AM to 19:00 PM

Base Salary
CUR. INR 25,000 - CUR. INR 25,000

Date posted
August 20, 2021